

One at a time, starting with the lowest, immerse the ringing bells in water (what I imagine is the sound of a water gong - if this is bad for the bells or if the immersion does nothing of what I imagine, then forget it and just let them ring forever!)